THE 2027 PROPHECIES

A collection of prophetic words shared by Troy Black

Since 2023, the Holy Spirit has given me many words to share involving 2027. I don't claim to know exactly what 2027 will bring, however, the words collectively paint a picture of it being a year to remember. Below is a compilation of those words.

Please note: most of these words have been separated from their initial context and the prophetic encouragement that accompanied the word. Remember that the purpose of these words was not and still is not to create fear. The Holy Spirit wants to comfort you today with the truth of His never-changing Word, His beautiful presence, the love of God filling your heart, and the fruit of the Spirit working in your life.

Here's one final thought to consider as you read these. The Lord will sometimes give me prophetic phrases that later connect to direct events taking place. However, sometimes the words or phrases I hear connect more to the headlines that surface during the timeframe given for the word. My point is, don't be led by assumption. Take these words to the Lord in prayer, allow Him to speak into them, continue testing what is shared, and above all, let the peace of God rule in your heart.

2027. A time of serious shaking. A fist pumped up in the air because of vengeful wrath felt by a body of individuals.

This word was shared on February 29, 2024, in this livestream: God Told Me To Watch THESE 5 DATES in the Next 50 Years - Prophetic Word

This is a Daniel moment. This time in the history of the United Nations. A Daniel will rise to conquer the villains of this time, and he will rise this year. This following year I will erupt a force greater than the forces of the earth combined, and that is a force of love and kindness. When the world respects vengeance and hatred of one's enemy, I will cause a Daniel to arise and conquer through the milk of human kindness being spread far and wide despite the expectation. They will be called a fool for My sake, for using forgiveness as a weapon of mass destruction in place of a destructive force.

They will forgive and it will set multiple nations on a coarse toward freedom. This is for 2025.

(NOTE: There is an entry on my Prophecy Archive titled "Daniel Moment" that talks about this word in relation to 2025.)

This is going to bleed over into 2027 when people will want to lose hope.

(In the livestream I shared this word in, I also shared this live on October 14, 2024: "And I just sense the Lord saying this: there's something that's coming over the next three to four years that's going to be a great shaking, a great rattling upon the earth, where people are going to want to throw up their hands and give up... They're going to want to lose hope over this display of vengeance. Yet at the same time, the Lord's saying, My people will rise up and begin to pray and begin to shield those who need protection in this time, even nations. I see just like banners of prayers over nations... The Lord was showing me that this Daniel arising in 2024 and then him starting this momentum of forgiveness and love in 2025 through making this decision instead of getting vengeance, it is going to affect what's happening in the next couple years.")

But I have set up situations to fortify different nations in order to keep them and the people within them going when things get tough.

2027, 2028, and 2029. There's a three-year period when things get rocky. Rough waters ahead. But I will sustain My people as they wait for Me and dwell under the shadow of My wing.

This word was shared on October 14, 2024, in this livestream: What God Showed Me About 2025. A Strange Prophecy.

Heard March 18, 2025

Foreign trade agreement. Explosive territory. This will enact a series of events unrelated to the economic situation, but it will affect the well-being of America as well as the way in which this country interacts with other nations who stood along side it in the next couple of years.

2027. The year of strange activity in the earth. A year of rumbling. All of this is connected.

I started the ball rolling and I will enact it.

However, My people do not need to worry or be afraid.

Trump is marching toward an end goal and there is a timeline in mind.

This is "the first of seven woes." What you're seeing into right now and what is to come.

Some of these things are going to affect that.

Tell them to plant vineyards, build houses, but most importantly to bring people into the kingdom in the years ahead.

In many ways it's going to feel like exile in the days ahead. It's going to feel like the old system has been broken into and My people have been carried away. But do not worry because your hope was not in a system of the earth, but in Me and My will—My plan and My goodness enacted upon the earth today.

Rest. Stop struggling as a bride. Cease striving and know that I am Your God. I am with you, and I will be with you in the days ahead. Nothing can get too dark that My light cannot and will not overcome it. Trust Me and be not afraid to believe for the best. My Spirit is with you.

This word was shared on March 19, 2025, in this livestream: We're Watching Trump Fulfill Prophecy. God Told Me What's Coming Next.

I comment on this word further in my recent book, Trump and the End Times, however, I want to share a few brief thoughts here.

Firstly, the "first of seven woes" element could be slightly confusing. There are seven trumpets of judgment found in the Book of Revelation, of which the last three are considered woes. These happen after the seven seals are opened. Based on the impressions I received, I do not believe that is what this word is referring to.

Instead, I believe the word "woe" refers to what some have called the "seven cries of woe regarding Babylon" in Revelation 18. I do not believe this is the final event that results in that woe. Instead, I heard: What you're seeing into right now and what is to come. Some of these things are going to affect that. The emphasis is on the events in 2027 being related to that warning. Possibly, the same nations or conflicts from 2027 will one day also be involved in that prophetic lamentation from Revelation 18. Yet, I believe there is much that still needs to occur prior to the Revelation 18 events truly beginning to unfold.

Secondly, this sentence from the word connects directly to Scripture: Tell them to plant vineyards, build houses, but most importantly to bring people into the kingdom in the years ahead.

This is referring to the exhortation and encouragement in Isaiah 65:21-23, which says:

"They will build houses and inhabit them; They will also plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They will not build and another inhabit, They will not plant and another eat; For as the lifetime of a tree, so will be the days of My people, And My chosen ones will fully enjoy the work of their hands. They will not labor in vain, Or give birth to children for disaster; For they are the descendants of those blessed by the Lord, And their descendants with them."

This prophecy foretells the reversal of an exile of God's people. After exile, God promises the fulfillment of His good plan of provision. A two-fold application lies before us today. First, no matter what shakings occur in today's world, "God is able to make all grace overflow to you, so that, always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed." (2 Corinthians 9:8) God has a good plan of provision for His people even during difficult seasons.

Second, this prophetic picture from Isaiah reminds us of the true promised land, which is Christ. Under the new covenant, we are able to rest fully in the finished work of Christ. This means trusting in His unmerited favor, relaxing and enjoying the presence of a good God who welcomes us as beloved children, and having faith that He will continue to work on us until He completes the work He has begun.

I'm rearranging things on the world stage right now, and this is a serious issue which will continue forward, changing and shifting in major ways over the next four years.

2027 will be a rough season of turmoil and strife in many ways. I'm making My bride ready for it. I'm setting you up to be able to help people around the world during that season.

I've positioned you right where you are for a reason. As a nation, as a people, and as individuals.

However, let My Spirit continue to lead you into all truth. Don't skip a step.

"But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take from Mine and will disclose it to you. All things that the Father has are Mine; this is why I said that He takes from Mine and will disclose it to you." (John 16:13-15)

2027 is the year of storms. Storms in culture, but more so in the world at large. The battling nations "solving" political issues and arguments through conflict. Conflicting natures clashing with one another. The time will come when My people say "is this the sign of the end having come?" Tell them, it's not time yet. Say it now so that when it comes they know I was telling the truth. Point people back to what I was saying now so that they know.

After hearing this, I began to see the kid's game where spinning tops fight until one falls over. Then, I saw the Robot Wars TV show where people battle their home-built robots in an arena.

2027, the year of the arena. The showdown. The smackdown.

I received an impression that this is referring to personal feelings of a politician getting hurt, and that it would be a reflection of what is happening between nations. The drama of world leaders would be on display, almost like a WWE moment.

Heard October 14, 2025

A piece of legislation. A callback to World War II. Where one nation has become dominated by the others. And for good reason to an extent. However, "in today's world…" they will say. "In the world we live in…" some will say, "…this is not right." Everything has to be fair to some.

This will happen soon. A shifting of world power to dominate the other and bring one into subjugation.

China is not the one but it will be slightly involved. So will the United States. Taking what once was a kingdom of greatness and, attempting to make it whole again, a breaking will occur. A breaking apart process that ends near disaster. A disastrous end at the end of this path that they will soon be forced onto.

"Putting past mistakes behind," they will say [this is the nation]. "Can we just all get along?"…this will not look good to many in the world. A lopsided agreement that pushes people to support a group of terrorists even more so, to a greater extent than ever before. A terrorist organization made to look like the enemy to such an extent that they begin to find pity as the ordinary, average watcher looks on.

A year and a half later, where are we?

I received an impression of this being initiated around a year and a half's time.

The 2027 war will be included in this. It will affect its outcome. 2027 will be a year of reckoning. "A great mistake," some will say as they look around and see the destruction taking place on all sides.

Heard February 28, 2026

In this word, the Lord refers to the Iran-U.S. conflict that began to ramp up in February of 2026. I heard this word the day that Iran's supreme leader Ali Khamenei was killed.

There is something coming that is going to make this feel insignificant to an extent, when it comes to the threat weighed against the USA. What's next will cripple many who are not in sync with My Word and fellowship. The daily walk. Relying on Me for peace and strength.

As I was hearing this, I kept seeing the fall of 2026 on the calendar, and then I saw the 2027 calendar leading up to the fall of that year as well.

Something big that will change everything.

I am working. I am that one behind much of the shaking. Because My people need to see that it is time to share the light…that is why I am mentioning this ahead of time.

Yet, many in the world will turn around and run back to the King because of it as well. A shake up. A time of great shaking.

Fellowship. That is the answer to the question. How do I remain steady during times of trial? Stay in fellowship, and that happens by relying upon My grace and what Jesus has done for you at Calvary. Upon a cross, the sins of the world were laid. And He took them to His grave, wiping out the debt that stood against humankind, for all those who are willing to receive it. I have wiped it out, declares the Lord. Believe it and remain in steady fellowship. Don't run away this time when things start to tremble. Just rest, trust, and believe Me, and I will use you as lights shining out with the love of Christ for the world to see. In dark times, lights shine ever so brightly.

The more is coming. It's on its way. It's almost here.

Along with this is a move of God and a coming deception. Some with draw closer than ever before to the truth. And some will accept the tale being fed to them by the alt media, teaching them to trust in the voices around them rather than the voice of God. This is already happening on a wide scale, even within the church to an extent, but the propensity to fall prey to it will grow even larger when all of this starts to unfold.

The phrase "this will become small potatoes" references a word I shared earlier in this same video. I followed up on that word on my Prophecy Archive; see the entry titled "Trump and a Mismanagement of Funds."

This will become small potatoes compared to some of the things coming moving forward. Remind them of what I said about 2027 and the ramp up in 2026. I am with you, declares the Lord.

The strategies of the East. Boring down upon the West. The United States and its compadres. A fire is coming.

Moving as one. Two nations on a single tirade. A force in unison. A fire brigade. One element of this is physical and will create a domineering, advancement mindset.

They will say, "We should have been forewarned of this ahead of time."

Another part is psychological. A war game strategy at play. Using any means necessary outside of the usual means of war. Anything that makes it look like war is avoidable in this case. But their intent will be the same nonetheless: to create a fear, to wreak havoc in the mind. To make people feel afraid of standing up against the coming force in the days ahead.

What if we make them mad? What might that do? We must appease them and maybe they will go home. Maybe they will stay where they are.

But giving them the benefit of the doubt in those case will be futile. That is the reason why I have raised up leaders who are strong and incapable of taking it sitting down. I set this in motion knowing what would come about.

This is coming to a head in 2027. It's coming. Brace yourself. But do not be afraid. Keep standing upon the firm rock of Jesus Christ. Everything else will fade away. Every other construct of man that people put their hope in will eventually collapse. But the Word of God will not. The Word of life first spoken by the Apostles and still spread by the church today will not fail if you lean into it.

I am with you, My bride. I am coming soon, yet there is much to do while you are waiting. Keep up the good fight of faith. Do not give in to a temptation of fear. My Spirit will keep you in all peace as you wait for Me. Rely upon My Word to strengthen you in the season ahead and you are going to be okay.

Final Thoughts

God sees the full timeline of history, and He is not worried about a single thing. More than anything else, 2027 brings with it a beautiful purpose for you and I to live out. God has planted you right here, right now, for reasons that will become even more evident in time. You are His child, and nothing can snatch you out of His hand. You were formed with gifts, talents, and passions, and He has given you His Holy Spirit to empower you to be a light unto the world. Whether that is in a large or small way—whether to nations or individuals—you are shining the light of Christ, and His light has overcome the darkness.

Be led by the Holy Spirit this year, and you are going to be okay. You're going to be more than okay as you wait upon Him and give Him full access to your heart. When we believe in Jesus, we receive constant access to Him because of His grace. Through friendship with the Holy Spirit, you will have all of the wisdom, grace, and power you need to be an overcomer in 2027 and beyond, as long as the Lord uses you on this earth.

"Do not let your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many rooms; if that were not so, I would have told you, because I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I am coming again and will take you to Myself, so that where I am, there you also will be. And you know the way where I am going." Thomas said to Him, "Lord, we do not know where You are going; how do we know the way?"

Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father except through Me. If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also; from now on you know Him, and have seen Him."" (John 14:1-7)

"I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper, so that He may be with you forever; the Helper is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see Him or know Him; but you know Him because He remains with you and will be in you. "I will not leave you as orphans; I am coming to you. After a little while, the world no longer is going to see Me, but you are going to see Me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you are in Me, and I in you." (John 14:16-20)

"These things I have spoken to you while remaining with you. But the Helper, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and remind you of all that I said to you. Peace I leave you, My peace I give you; not as the world gives, do I give to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled, nor fearful." (John 14:25-27)
